

PURE MAPLE GRADES ARE CHANGING!

It's ALL Grade A

There's something you should know. The way maple syrup is graded and labeled is changing. Don't worry—your customer's favorite syrup isn't going away. It's just changing its name.

IF YOU ALREADY LOVE: YOU SHOULD CONSIDER:

Grade A Light Amber

Grade A Golden Color, Delicate Taste

Grade A Medium Amber

Grade A Amber Color, Rich Taste

Grade A Dark Amber

Grade A Dark Color, Robust Taste

Grade B

Grade A Very Dark Color, Strong Taste

Commercial Grade

Processing Grade

IF YOU ALREADY LOVE:

YOU SHOULD CONSIDER:

Canada No. 1 Extra Light

Grade A Golden Color, Delicate Taste

Canada No. 1 Light

Grade A Amber Color, Rich Taste

Canada No. 1 Medium

Grade A Dark Color, Robust Taste

Canada No. 2 Amber

Grade A Very Dark Color, Strong Taste

Canada No. 3 Dark

Processing Grade

BASCOM your maple source

your maple source For more information, go to www.maplesource.com